USTA Tennis With Friends League

The 'Tennis With Friends League' sponsored by the United States Tennis Association (USTA) is a great option and additional resource for those new to competition and also those already taking lessons or playing on school teams. Players are grouped according to their age and skill level, and matches are organized and supervised by tennis coaches. The Spring season includes three match days (Warren Sports Complex in Frisco) plus a season-ending playoff tournament and tennis carnival (Goldfield Tennis Center in Denton). All participants receive a league shirt, organized singles and doubles matches, and an opportunity to participate in the season-ending playoffs. USTA membership is not required to participate. Please bring a water bottle and towel.
